City Announces Popular Eggstravaganza Egg Hunt Chase Palm Park Saturday, April 7, at 10am

SANTA BARBARA, CA – March 26, 2012

The City-sponsored Eggstravaganza is the biggest egg hunt in town for toddlers to 8-year-olds and is anticipated with great enthusiasm by families each year. Egg hunters are organized by age group into four separate hunt areas at the Great Meadow in Chase Palm Park, 323 E. Cabrillo Blvd. Participants need to bring a basket and keen eyes to gather plenty of chocolate eggs.

Working in cooperation with the City's Parks and Recreation Department, the Police Officers and Fire Fighters Associations volunteer and fund this annual event. Firefighters bring a fire engine, give tours and pass out hats and stickers. Families are encouraged to arrive early for a photo opportunity with the Bunny, firefighters and fire engine.

High School volunteers who wish to earn community service should be at Casa Las Palmas, 323 E. Cabrillo Blvd., on Saturday, April 7, at 8:30am for an orientation and to assist with the event.
